South African Airlink - Update

MalaMala Game Reserve has three camps namely Main Camp, Kirkman's Kamp and Harry's Camp. Whichever camp you stay at, you are guaranteed total safari satisfaction, and whichever camp you prefer is merely a question of tariff and personal taste.

MalaMala Game Reserve is recognized as the premier safari destination in Southern Africa, and is the leader in its field. MalaMala's diversified portfolio of camps has enabled this organization to offer a vast spectrum of wildlife experiences to the discerning market. Family owned and managed for over 3 decades, this private and exclusive sanctuary has established the highest standards in all aspects of its operation.

Situated in Mpumalanga, South Africa and adjacent to the Kruger National Park, MalaMala is part of a conservation gene pool that covers 5,5 million acres of land with habitat types ranging from riverine thicket to open savannah. This area is known to have the greatest diversification of animal species on the African continent. Over two hundred different species occur in abundance, whilst the ever changing bird life provides even the most experienced ornithologist with rare finds.

MalaMala Game Reserve is the largest privately owned game reserve in South Africa, and offers unparalleled game viewing, which has enthralled guests from all over the world since it embarked on its first photographic safari in 1962.

At MalaMala Game Reserve you will be introduced to Africa's finest wildlife experience. All game viewing is conducted in open 4-wheel drive safari vehicles, which allows for total freedom of movement and the ability to leave the road and track down all of Africa's Big Five - lion, leopard, rhino, elephant and buffalo.

MalaMala Game Reserve owns over 39,000 acres of pristine game viewing land and human intrusion is minimal. MalaMala also enjoys an unfenced boundary of 32 km/20 miles with the Kruger National Park. Herds of animals migrate unhindered to the perennial Sand River, which flows north to south through the MalaMala Game Reserve.

Camps

MalaMala Main Camp comprises of 13 suites and 12 twin rooms, which accommodates 50 guests. MalaMala Main Camp is South Africa's legendary and exclusive safari destination. Internationally acknowledged as the "top safari camp of the world", it is set in beautiful surroundings on the banks of the Sand River.

Kirkman's Kamp accommodates a maximum of 36 guests in 18 twin rooms.

Kirkman's Kamp is situated in the southern area of the famous MalaMala Game Reserve. The camp offers a return to the bushveld in the style of yester year. Located on one of the most elevated sites over-looking the Sand River, the camp has spectacular views of the unspoiled wilderness as far as the eye can see.

Harry's Camp - recognized internationally as "the camp with a difference"- is located in the central area of MalaMala Game Reserve. It has an "African Cultural" safari theme - that of the traditional, creative Ndebele tribe of South Africa.
