

MALAMALA - PATHWAY TO AN AFRICAN EDEN
By Amanda Lumry & Jamie Thom

In the Mpumalanga region of South Africa, adjacent to Kruger National Park, lies a paradise known as MalaMala. A privately-owned game reserve, MalaMala is renowned for its extravagant beauty and impressive concentration of animals, including the legendary "Big Five" - lion, leopard, buffalo, rhinoceros, and elephant.

Amanda Lumry and Jamie Thom take the reader on a visual journey through the unspoiled innocence of this latter-day reflection of Biblical Eden. These images bring to life the peerless drama of the safari experience. Here is a glimpse of quintessential Africa, with its abundance of wildlife and breathtaking landscapes. This volume captures the true essence of MalaMala, and thus the African wildlife experience.
