MALAMALA GAME RESERVE - FACT SHEET 2011/2012

WHERE ARE WE LOCATED ?

The MalaMala Game Reserve is strategically located between the Sabi Sand game reserve and the Kruger National Park, Mpumalanga

WHY MALAMALA GAME RESERVE?

Best game viewing in South Africa – 500 acres land to guest ratio. Maximum 3 vehicles per sighting
Largest area of privately owned (by the Rattray family since 1964) land of a total 33,000 acres
12 miles of unfenced border with Kruger National Park
Uninterrupted flow of Sand River through the entire property, attracting multitudes of variety of game
Longest stretch of the Sand River of any other Sabi Sand property
Camps built on western side of Sand River for unhindered game movement from the east of the river throughout the reserve.
Highly qualified rangers. Most of the guides have University degrees in natural sciences
Vast diversity of habitat types in MalaMala
One of the first tracts of private land to switch from hunting to conservation
Excellent environment management by Michael Rattray for 50 years - Member of National Parks Board for decades & acknowledged with host of eco-awards
Excellent value for money
